Description

You are looking to build your new getaway, but how do you get away from it all? A true barrier island with no bridges. Separate yourself from the world and enjoy the peace and quiet. It’s just you, your companions and the beach on North Captiva Island. Only accessible by boat or plane, this bay to beach lot offers expansive views of the Gulf of Mexico. The closely neighboring barrier island Sanibel is a popular tourist destination known for its unique shelling and beaches (due to the east/west orientation) and wildlife refuges. There are only a handful of bay to beach lots that are buildable on North Captiva Island. Build your sanctuary on one of the best rated beaches in Florida. Owner financing may be available, call for terms!!
