Description

Welcome to Falling Waters – Davis Boulevard in Naples, Florida, where resort-style living meets the charm and sophistication of one of Southwest Florida's most celebrated coastal cities. This inviting 2-bedroom, 2-bath condo offers comfort, style, and an ideal location within one of Naples' most desirable gated communities. Nestled in the sought-after Falling Waters Davis enclave, this residence features a spacious, airy floor plan highlighted by vaulted ceilings, abundant natural light, and serene views of the community lake. The updated kitchen shines with white bead-board cabinetry and granite countertops, creating a bright, coastal-inspired space perfect for cooking and entertaining. The living area flows seamlessly to the screened lanai, where peaceful water views set the tone for morning coffee or evening unwinding. A detached 1-car garage, generous storage, and a split-bedroom layout add convenience and privacy—ideal for full-time residents or seasonal visitors seeking a relaxing Naples retreat. Residents of Falling Waters enjoy exceptional amenities, including an impressive 11,000-sq-ft resort-style pool, clay tennis courts, bocce courts, and an active clubhouse offering year-round social activities. The community's lush tropical landscaping and winding walking paths create a tranquil, vacation-like atmosphere every day. Best of all, this prime location places you just minutes from Naples' world-famous Gulf beaches, the upscale shopping and dining of Fifth Avenue South and Third Street South, and the vibrant arts, culture, and culinary scene that make Naples one of Florida’s most desirable coastal cities. From pristine white-sand shores to championship golf courses and nature preserves, the best of Southwest Florida living is right at your doorstep.
