Description

BREATH TAKING DIRECT GULF ACCESS JEWEL DEFINING HIGH-END LUXURY AND ENDLESS VIEWS. Sprawling across a half-acre corner lot with over 300 feet of seawall, this custom Mediterranean residence offers an ultra-wide waterfront perspective where Wazee Lake meets the North Spreader Waterway—creating a private oasis that is absolutely perfect for the avid boater or anyone seeking a peaceful, tranquil lifestyle. Located in the exclusive gated community of West Cape Estates, the grounds feature a large composite dock with a covered boat lift, an additional boat slip, and a fish cleaning station, delivering effortless, bridge-free navigation to the open Gulf. Spanning over 5,200 square feet of living area and 8,626 total square feet, the five-bedroom, four-and-a-half-bathroom residence opens to a grand great room with coffered ceilings towering over 20 feet high. This space transitions seamlessly into a spacious chef's kitchen featuring dual-tone granite/quartz countertops, a central island with a prep sink, built-in stainless steel appliances, and an adjacent sun-lit dining area. The spacious owner's suite commands sweeping water views, paired with an en suite walk-in shower showcasing dual control stations and multiple shower heads, a jetted jacuzzi tub, and a large safe. Built for premium lifestyle experiences and absolute peace of mind, the estate includes a dedicated theater room, game room, exercise room, elevator, full-house reverse osmosis system, and an automatic propane generator with a buried 500-gallon tank. Residents of West Cape Estates enjoy private access to a community fitness center, tennis and pickleball courts. Perfectly positioned right next to Tropicana Park, the property offers pedestrian access to the highly anticipated Seven Islands waterfront destination, all while keeping coastal dining, upscale shopping, and top regional attractions just minutes away. Secured by impact-rated doors and windows, and finished with a brand-new tile roof and fresh exterior paint, this is the rare waterfront property you have been waiting for.
