Description

Expertly renovated by The Wolter Group during 2023 and 2024 with spectacular interior design by Aniko Brittingham, this gorgeous home is a true showpiece. Nearly everything is new in this high-quality, thoughtful renovation. The floor plan was changed and the roof, windows, electrical, plumbing, doors, windows, flooring, appliances, pool equipment, dock, boat lift, and landscaping are all new! Incredible tile selections and beautiful quartz counters elevate the bathrooms to spa- like experiences, each with its own distinct identity. The stunning expansive kitchen flows seamlessly to the huge screened pool area and outdoor living space and to the fabulous great room, making this an ideal home for entertaining, hosting family, or just enjoying gracious island living. Cozy and coastal, the great room is the center of the home with plenty of space to relax, gather, dine, or enjoy the poolside bar area. The oversized lot with over 130 feet of seawall creates tremendous privacy and awesome intersecting canal views. With nearby community beach access, this home combines the best of island living. Seller may consider owner financing.
