Description

REDUCED! What a Bargain! Still not low enough then make an offer. Condo must go! It is Vacant and had quite a bit of Renovations done. Still some things for a new owner to change and make it their own. The price is the cheapest per SqFt in the complex. At this price, it would make a great investment. Rentals are sought after and this one is well located. You are in North Naples and at a max of 20 minutes takes you most anywhere in Southwest Florida Including the RSW International Airport, Condo has had Most of the Interior Freshly Painted. New Carpet in all 3 Bedrooms. Newer Woodlike (No knowledge of exactly what kind it is, but is about 2 years old.) Some of front balcony was painted. Large Rear balcony was retiled a couple of months ago and Drain was repaired. There is a Table and benches in the breakfast room.
