Description

Stunning remodel. Designer details. Ultimate location. Enter a residence where timeless charm meets high-design living—this completely reimagined three-bedroom, three-bath beauty in Fort Myers desirable McGregor Corridor is nothing short of extraordinary. Following a complete renovation, this home is a masterclass in craftsmanship, luxury and thoughtful reconfiguration. Every inch has been meticulously upgraded—walls moved, ceilings raised and features elevated—to create a living experience that is relaxed and refined. Inside, you'll be captivated by vaulted ceilings in the great room and primary suite, featuring hand-harvested cypress beams from the local Cypress Slough and crisp white tongue-and-groove wood paneling. Natural textures meet elegant design with beadboard and chair rail wainscoting throughout, a wood-burning fireplace and custom finishes. The gourmet kitchen is a showstopper, quartz countertops with full-height backsplash, a custom banquet, ZLine refrigerator with filtered water and even a left-in reverse osmosis system. The adjacent laundry room—newly added inside for convenience—makes everyday living effortless. The luxury continues outdoors with a new pool by Coastal Custom Pools, complete with marble pavers, a sun shelf with bubblers, a water feature wall and a freestanding hot tub for evening relaxation. Entertain with ease or unwind in style within your fenced-in backyard and dedicated dog run. A replaced front porch with pavers sets the tone before you even step through the door. No detail was overlooked, solid core interior doors, new impact windows, new roof, gutters, trim, tile flooring, upgraded door hardware and whole-home ADT security. There’s even a 50-amp RV plug, generator hookup, irrigation system and whole-house water softener for seamless living. The primary suite is an elegant sanctuary with navy shaker cabinets, quartz counters, Kohler Purist fixtures, custom closets, natural wood shelving and a walk-in shower with dual sinks. Each guest suite is a design lover’s dream featuring custom wallpaper, board and batten accents, built-ins and spa-inspired baths. In one of Fort Myers charming, family-friendly communities, you're a short distance from Triangle Park, the Caloosahatchee River, and all the culture, cuisine and entertainment of downtown. This is not just a remodel, it’s a home of heart and soul, curated for the way you want to live.
