Beautifully renovated, this lakefront condo is nestled in Rivers Reach, a quiet, sought-after neighborhood in The Villages of Country Creek. Its desirable southwest-facing position offers a private waterfront setting and stunning sunset views.The inviting entrance leads into a wide, open-concept great room with soaring vaulted ceilings. The adjacent kitchen features a dual-setup design with both a breakfast bar and a separate dining nook or office area. Kitchen updates include quartz countertops, custom cabinetry and elegant stainless-steel appliances. The renovated bathrooms offer luxurious finishes. Throughout the home you'll find designer lighting, detailed millwork, low-maintenance luxury vinyl plank flooring, and new doors and hardware. Full-height sliding glass doors open from the living room onto a spacious, elevated screened-in lanai with storm protection, overlooking the community lake and the recently renovated Gordon Lewis 18-hole golf course. Additional conveniences include a carport, storage locker and guest parking. An elegant $6M clubhouse restoration (think Clive Daniel) is underway and will be completed soon. Shopping and dining are just minutes away.
