Description

Very rare opportunity to purchase a vacant land parcels on the southernmost North Captiva Island canal bordering the state preserve! A well-designed home's upper levels will offer unobstructed views across the state wildlife reserve to Pine Island Sound, plus vistas over the entire preserve and island to the Gulf for beautiful sunsets. It is located adjacent to a neighborhood HOA double-sized parcel at the end of the canal, which offers extra green space to the south. If you are looking for great views, private dockage for multiple boats, and privacy while close to the beach, this lot may be the one for you!
