Description

This end-unit residence in the 600 building of La Peninsula on Isles of Capri, with what may be the most impressive views in the area. Wide western exposure looks straight out over the Gulf of America, so you get sunsets from your own living space every evening. The home has been fully redesigned with careful craftsmanship throughout. It has warm hardwood floors, polished granite and tile, premium Miele and Sub-Zero appliances, and custom Italian cabinetry. Impact windows and sliders plus electric hurricane shutters add peace of mind without taking anything away from the style. The setting feels tucked away, yet Marco Island is minutes away and the shops and dining of Naples’ 5th Avenue South are about 20 minutes off. Thoughtful upgrades and a rare location make this condo a standout opportunity.
