Description

Discover the charm of island living in this spacious three-bedroom, two-bath top-floor corner residence at Casa de Marco, ideally situated at the desirable south end of Marco Island. Offering an abundance of natural light and a generously sized wraparound balcony, this inviting condominium provides the perfect setting to relax, entertain and enjoy beautiful western exposures and spectacular sunset skies. The thoughtfully designed interior features a remodeled kitchen, a spacious living and dining area, and a large pantry/storage closet for added convenience. Engineered hardwood flooring enhances the main living area and primary bedroom, while both guest bedrooms feature brand-new carpeting. Additional highlights include accordion hurricane shutters, covered parking and a private ground-floor storage closet. Residents enjoy a community swimming pool bathed in sunshine throughout the day, creating an inviting setting for relaxation. Ideally located just moments from Marco Island’s renowned South Beach, as well as nearby dining, shopping and entertainment, this exceptional corner residence offers the perfect combination of comfort, convenience and relaxed coastal living.
