Description

Discover effortless island living at Casa de Marco, where comfort, convenience and an exceptional location come together just 0.3 miles from Marco Island's beautiful white-sand beaches. Offered turnkey-furnished, this inviting three-bedroom, two-bath condominium is thoughtfully appointed with quality furnishings and beautifully coordinated décor, creating a welcoming coastal retreat where all that's left to do is pack your bags and settle into paradise. The spacious, well-designed floor plan features split bedrooms for added privacy, generous closet space, and comfortable living areas ideal for relaxing or entertaining. An updated kitchen and baths provide a fresh, inviting feel, while an in-unit washer and dryer add everyday convenience. Go outside to the generously sized screened lanai, where glimpses of the Gulf and beautiful sunset views create the ideal backdrop for evening relaxation or entertaining. Electric shutters throughout offer added protection and peace of mind, making seasonal ownership that much easier. Additional conveniences include desired covered under-building parking and a spacious private garage-level storage closet, ideal for beach chairs, bicycles and all your island essentials. A community swimming pool completes the relaxed Florida lifestyle. With beach access just a short stroll away and monthly rentals permitted, this residence offers exceptional flexibility as a full-time home, seasonal retreat or investment opportunity. Beautifully furnished, ideally located and ready to enjoy from day one, this is Marco Island living made easy.
