Description

Welcome to your new condo in Bonita National! Pulling into your covered carport space, your private exterior storage unit is just steps down the walkway—giving you a dedicated, secure spot for tennis rackets, bikes, and beach gear before you reach your front door. Walking up to this fully furnished, ground-floor Antonia floor plan, you enjoy single-level ease with zero stairs or elevator waits. The front entry opens to an inviting hallway with high ceilings, tile flooring, and crown molding that leads you into the main living and dining spaces. At the center of the home is a stunning, top-to-bottom remodeled kitchen featuring bright white cabinetry with black hardware, a new sink, quartz countertops, a subway tile backsplash, stainless steel GE appliances, a cozy eating nook, and a breakfast bar styled with custom vertical slat accent panelling underneath. Passing the kitchen, you enter a formal dining area centered beneath a stylish upgraded ceiling light fixture, which flows seamlessly into the bright Great Room. Wide sliding glass doors lead out to a private screened lanai with southern exposure, bringing in all-day natural sunlight over the beautiful lake and golf course. Back inside and tucked off the main area, the primary suite has cozy carpet, a walk-in closet, an en-suite bath featuring a dual-sink granite vanity and tiled shower, and a large window highlighting those same serene water views. Back toward the entry, the guest wing offers complete privacy with a spacious second bedroom located right across from a dedicated full bath complete with a convenient bi-fold laundry closet. Offered with a Social Membership, you enjoy full access to the community lifestyle without annual golf dues—while still having the flexibility to play the championship course as a guest of a member or off-season at the prevailing guest rate! Best of all, this condo is ideally situated directly adjacent to Bonita National's world-class amenities—putting the course, driving range, tennis and pickleball courts, resort-style lagoon pool, and clubhouse just a short walk from your front door! Schedule your private tour today to experience this resort-style condo for yourself!
