Description

A gated entrance opens to a long driveway that winds past a private pond and established mature trees set among carefully tended landscaping. The main residence offers 1,740 square feet with four bedrooms and two full baths, arranged in a split plan that keeps the primary suite comfortably separate. Vaulted ceilings give the living area an open, airy feel, and it flows directly onto a screened lanai overlooking the fully fenced yard. A two-car garage completes the main home, while the generous primary suite includes its own sitting or reading space. Toward the rear of the property stands a second structure that adds real utility: a guest house with a wrap-around porch plus an attached 900-square-foot air-conditioned garage/shop. Whether you’re looking for room to run a small business, store a vehicle collection, keep an RV or boat, or simply create extra living and workspace, this building expands the property’s possibilities without sacrificing the quiet setting. If you want acreage, a gated feel, and room to work or play that is minutes from town, this Golden Gate Estates property delivers both the privacy of a retreat and the practicality of a working homestead.
