Description

Positioned within the prestigious Sanctuary at Wulfert Point, this exceptional three-bedroom, four-bath residence embodies the timeless sophistication of British West Indies architecture paired with modern luxury and effortless indoor-outdoor living. Meticulously updated, the home offers an exquisite blend of craftsmanship, comfort, and resort-inspired amenities in one of Sanibel Island's most coveted golf course communities. A lush tropical approach sets the tone, with climbing bougainvillea and jasmine cascading across the home's exterior, creating a welcoming sense of arrival. Inside, rich dark wood flooring, soaring ceilings, custom millwork, and refined finishes define the elegant interior spaces. The well designed split floor plan affords privacy for family and guests while maintaining flow for entertaining. The features a stunning gourmet kitchen, beautifully appointed with custom cabinetry, luxury finishes, abundant workspace, and exceptional storage. Seamlessly connected to the dining and great room, it creates the perfect setting for both intimate gatherings and large-scale entertaining. A richly appointed office provides an inspiring retreat for work or reflection. With its handsome finishes and sophisticated ambiance, it feels worthy of Hemingway himself. Dramatic floor-to-ceiling sliding glass doors open to a covered lanai complete with outdoor kitchen and multiple lounging & dining areas. Beyond lies a spectacular custom pool area with a striking pergola where a gentle waterfall cascades from the roofline into the pool below, a designer pedestal fire bowl, sun decks, and lush tropical surroundings. The expansive primary suite offers the feel of a boutique resort, featuring a generously sized walk-in closet that buffers the sleeping quarters from an amazing spa bath appointed with dual vanities, a sculptural freestanding soaking tub, and an oversized walk-in shower designed for daily rejuvenation. Two additional guest suites each offer comfort and privacy with their own full baths. A fourth full bath doubles as a pool bath and features a unique shower-to-sauna conversion, adding yet another layer of resort-style indulgence. Surrounding the outdoor living spaces, tropical landscaping creates a park-like setting and natural privacy buffer from the golf course beyond, allowing residents to enjoy tranquil views of swaying palms & beautifully landscaped grounds. Additional features include a spacious garage accommodating two vehicles plus a golf cart. The Sanctuary at Wulfert Point is renowned for its championship golf course, incredible clubhouse & restaurant, attended fitness center, other amenities, and unmatched natural surroundings. Membership in this private equity club is optional. Moments from Sanibel's world-famous beaches, wildlife preserves, and boating opportunities, this remarkable residence presents a rare opportunity to enjoy refined island living in one of SW Florida's most distinguished communities.
