Description

Great opportunity to bring your vision to life on almost one acre in the prestigious, gated community of Devonwood Estates. On a cul-de-sac street, surrounded by multi-million dollar homes, this oversized homesite presents one of the final opportunities to build your dream home in the community. The community offers a gulf access boat ramp and recreational amenities, including basketball and tennis. Devonwood Estates is a private, gated, luxury community of just 55 single-family homes that offers suburban living in an exclusive close-to-town setting on approximately acre-plus home sites. The community features custom single family homes catering to executive families and is often recognized as the premier executive community in the greater Fort Myers area. Amenities include a common boat launch with direct access to the gulf for small boats, boat storage, tennis, and basketball.. Devonwood is located in South Fort Myers on US-41, south of Six Mile Cypress Parkway. The Forest Country Club is miles away and is currently offering a special membership discount to owners in Devonwood. Call the club for details. One or more photo(s) has been AI edited.
