Description

What if your next home came with a waterpark? Your next home could come with waterslides and a lazy river! This amazing Sylvester model home has been curated with so many carefully selected upgrades! The front door has a full privacy glass window allowing natural light to spill into the home. This 4 bedroom, three bathroom home has all tile wood planking with custom paint on the interior walls, showcasing the beauty of each room. The primary suite is a private retreat, set apart from the other bedrooms. It offers generous space, large walk-in closet, a tiled super shower with a bathroom window for natural light, a large double vanity with drawers and dual sinks, The white kitchen cabinets and quartz counter tops have been tastefully updated with custom tile backsplash for a timeless look. The outdoor oasis features an east facing salt water pool/spa with a water view for gorgeous morning sunrises. The extended covered lanai with custom outdoor ceiling fan for that coastal breeze and grouted pavers offers plenty of room for entertaining while the interior wall mounted touch control panel and professionally hung marine grade privacy curtains complete the pool experience. This home delivers the ultimate Florida lifestyle, enhanced by its location in the fabulous Tucker’s Cove water park community.
