Description

Welcome to a unique opportunity in growing NW Cape Coral! This home combines modern updates, incredible outdoor entertaining space, and a flexible layout with plenty of possibilities. At the heart of the home is a beautifully updated modern kitchen with a fresh, contemporary feel perfect for everyday living and entertaining. Step outside and enjoy your private pool and spacious backyard, designed for making the most of the Southwest Florida lifestyle. For those who love hosting family and friends, the backyard features a dedicated outdoor roasting and cooking area perfect for traditional pig roasts, Nochebuena, holiday celebrations, and weekend gatherings. It's a special feature that makes this home ideal for entertaining and creating memories with the people you love. The property also includes additional converted spaces that offer flexibility for a variety of potential uses. Whether you're looking for extra space for extended family, guests, a home office, hobbies, or other possibilities, this home offers a layout that can adapt to your needs. Conveniently located in NW Cape Coral, this property offers modern style, a private pool, generous entertaining space, and features you won't find in every home. Schedule your private showing and come explore the possibilities this property has to offer! Buyer and buyer's agent are responsible for verifying permits, square footage, room configuration, zoning, and permitted uses of any converted spaces.
