Description

Imagine owning a waterfront home in Cape Coral that begins generating rental income from day one. With a tenant in place through August 31, 2027, this four-bedroom, two-bath home offers an opportunity to purchase an income-producing property with an established lease already in place. Inside, 1,777 square feet of living space provides room for everyday living, working from home, and welcoming guests. Four bedrooms offer flexibility, while the two-car garage adds practical space for parking and storage. Outside, the waterfront setting invites you to picture quiet mornings by the water and evenings enjoying Southwest Florida’s warm weather. For buyers searching for a Cape Coral investment property, a tenant-occupied home, or waterfront real estate with rental income, this property brings those possibilities together. Add it to your investment portfolio today while considering its potential for your future. Schedule a showing and explore what waterfront ownership in Cape Coral could mean for you.
