Description

Welcome to The Regent, Penthouse 2, an extraordinary Gulf-front residence in one of Naples, Florida’s most prestigious condominium buildings. Completely reimagined through an expert collaboration between the renowned Suzanne Lovell Inc., one of Architectural Digest’s top 100 international interior design firms, and master craftsmen from Kurtz Homes and Thomas Riley Artisans’ Guild, this home embodies a harmonious blend of interior design ingenuity and refined luxury. From the moment one steps from the private elevator into the grand entryway, one is welcomed by panoramic views of the Gulf of Mexico. The expansive great room is designed with an open flow to maximize light and breathtaking vistas. With multiple seating areas, a fully appointed bar, and seamless transitions to the dining room, this space sets the stage for gracious living and entertaining. Every element in this home has been thoughtfully customized to balance sophistication with relaxation. Penthouse 2, the only residence on the entire floor, occupies just over 12,000 square feet under air, consisting of four bedroom suites, two offices, media room, cabana room, game room, kitchen, family room, and space for exercising. Numerous terraces offer the residents various opportunities to enjoy exhilarating views of Naples and the shores of the Gulf of Mexico. The interior design embraces texture and artistry, from light wood flooring and shiplap walls to rope and woven leather accents. This rich palette serves as a backdrop for curated fine art and collectible furnishings, creating a home that is at once chic and informal. Penthouse 2 is more than a residence; it is a testament to inspired design, meticulous craftsmanship, coupled with the unmatched beauty of its oceanfront setting. Whether hosting grand gatherings or enjoying quiet family moments, this home is a sanctuary of elegance and comfort, perfectly tailored for modern living. Experience the pinnacle of luxury condominium living in Naples, Florida!
