Description

Discover the exceptional opportunity to own a Private Mediterranean-style retreat in one of Sanibel Island’s most desirable locations. This private, spacious Luxury home is situated just steps from deeded beach access on prestigious West Gulf Drive on Sanibel Island. This Luxurious 2 story home offers an impressive layout with four bedrooms plus a den/private office, providing ample space for family guests, and extended stays. The expansive interior features soaring ceilings, a great room with endless kitchen ideas such as an island with breakfast bar, separate family and living rooms, dining room, and laundry room. The generously sized primary suite features a walk-in closet, soaking tub if desired, separate shower, and dual vanities. Outside, enjoy a huge swimming pool and spa surrounded by an expansive deck and atrium, creating a private setting ideal for entertaining or relaxing in the island lifestyle. The home also offers massive lower-level storage, providing exceptional space for beach equipment, vehicles, recreational gear, and more. 3D Renderings are included in pictures, such as front of the home, master bedroom, master bath, kitchen, living room area. Renovation Opportunity Renovations are currently underway, creating a unique opportunity for a new owner to acquire the property while improvements are in progress. The renovation work and opportunity to continue the project can be transferred to the new buyer, allowing the purchaser to participate in the finishing process and customize the property to their vision. With its private setting, substantial living space, pool and spa, quality concrete-block construction, and deeded beach access, 232 Robinwood Circle presents a rare opportunity to create a distinctive Sanibel Island retreat. A must-see property for buyers seeking privacy, space, beach access, and the opportunity to complete a renovation on their own terms. Estimates for Rendering renovations are available upon request.
