Description

An exceptional opportunity awaits at Lands End Village, where sweeping views across Redfish Pass and spectacular sunsets set the stage for a distinctive Captiva Island retreat. This two bedroom, two bath condominium, positioned within one of South Seas' desirable waterfront enclaves, offers the opportunity to complete the remaining restoration and personalize the interiors to reflect your coastal style. The waterfront setting is the centerpiece, with expansive views of Redfish Pass, passing boats and the ever-changing colors of the evening sky. Imagine mornings watching the water come alive and evenings unwinding as the sun slips below the horizon. At the northern tip of Captiva Island, Lands End Village offers a relaxed coastal lifestyle complemented by community swimming pools, a Jacuzzi, tennis and pickleball courts, and convenient beach access. Spend your days strolling the shoreline, enjoying a match on the courts or relaxing poolside before gathering to watch another memorable sunset. Set within the gates of South Seas, the community is also conveniently located near the restaurants, boutiques and island charm of Captiva Village. With its remarkable waterfront outlook and the flexibility to complete the remaining interior work to your taste, this property presents an appealing opportunity to create a personal island getaway or a welcoming place to enjoy Captiva's natural beauty. Bring your vision to life in a setting where the views, recreation and easygoing rhythm of island living take center stage.
