Description

Don’t miss this exceptional opportunity to build the home of your dreams in a beautiful, quiet neighborhood with minimal traffic. This vacant lot is being offered together with professionally prepared architectural plans and designs for a single-family residence. The architectural plans have already been approved by the applicable city authority and officially registered with the city. The approved plans and related design documents are included with the sale and will be transferred to the new owner. Skip the lengthy design and approval process—everything is ready so you can move forward with construction. Bring your builder and start turning your dream home into reality!
