Description

Experience the best of villa living in this spacious detached 3-bedroom, 2½-bath cottage that lives and feels like a single-family home. Offering just under 1,600 square feet under air, this beautifully maintained residence features volume ceilings, an open-concept living area, and a desirable golf course view. The updated kitchen, featuring granite countertops, stainless steel appliances, and a huge center island, opens seamlessly to the main living area—perfect for entertaining or simply enjoying everyday Florida living. The home offers the added convenience of two master suites, along with updated baths featuring granite countertops. Step outside to the approximately 200-square-foot screened lanai and take in the peaceful golf course views. The community pool is just steps away, making it easy to enjoy the Florida lifestyle. A two-car garage provides plenty of room for vehicles, storage, and all the essentials of Southwest Florida living. Located in an intimate community of only 29 homes, this property offers a unique combination of privacy, convenience, and a welcoming neighborhood atmosphere. Private golf memberships are available. Deep Water Marina with slips for purchase or lease. And the location is hard to beat—just minutes from Sanibel Island, Captiva Island, and Fort Myers' beautiful beaches, as well as shopping, dining, and Southwest Florida International Airport (RSW). Whether you're looking for a full-time residence or a seasonal getaway, the choice is yours..... You have been formally invited to partake in a lifestyle like no other ...
