Completely reimagined with crisp modern style and a bright, open design, this beautifully renovated 4-bedroom, 2-bath Naples home delivers the move-in-ready lifestyle buyers are searching for—with NO HOA and a fully fenced backyard ready for your Florida dream oasis. Located at 2181 52nd Ln SW in Naples, this residence has been thoughtfully updated throughout, pairing timeless finishes with a spacious split-bedroom, open-concept floor plan designed for comfortable everyday living and entertaining. The showpiece kitchen feels fresh and sophisticated with abundant white shaker cabinetry, expansive quartz countertops, an oversized waterfall-edge island, stainless steel appliances, contemporary pendant lighting, and a stylish mosaic backsplash. Gorgeous large-format tile flooring flows throughout the home, complemented by recessed lighting, modern ceiling fans, fresh neutral finishes, new impact windows and doors and generous living spaces filled with natural light. Sliding glass doors create an effortless connection to the backyard and covered outdoor living area. Both bathrooms have been completely remodeled with striking floor-to-ceiling tile showers, frameless glass enclosures, quartz-topped vanities, illuminated mirrors, designer tile accents, and sleek modern fixtures. The desirable split floor plan provides flexibility and privacy, making the home equally suited for everyday living, guests, or a dedicated home office. Outside, your outdoor living space has mature shade trees, a covered patio, and plenty of open space to create the ultimate Southwest Florida retreat—whether you envision a custom pool and spa, outdoor kitchen, tropical gardens, or expansive entertaining area. Conveniently located in Naples near shopping, dining, recreation, and everyday conveniences, this beautifully updated home combines modern design, generous living space, a private backyard, and exceptional move-in-ready appeal in one impressive package.
