Description

Experience the allure of waterfront living in the highly desirable Olde Naples Seaport area. This fully furnished three-bedroom, three- bathroom residence is a true haven for boating enthusiasts. The open floor plan radiates elegance while fostering a relaxed lifestyle. A private elevator from the two-car garage provides direct access to your home, which is equipped with all the essential amenities for enjoying Naples, including a prime location. A bayside balcony off the living area enhances the overall ambiance, while a private rooftop patio awaits your personal touch, offering the perfect setting to conclude any day. The spacious layout is ideal for gatherings with family and friends, while the multi-level design ensures privacy when needed. The owners' suite is generously proportioned and boasts breathtaking views of the bay. Additional features include ample storage, a community pool, ground-level dockside walking paths on two sides, and plentiful guest parking. Beyond this exceptional location, the home offers convenient access to all that Naples has to offer: pristine sandy beaches, biking and walking trails, museums, performing arts venues, galleries, fine dining, and excellent shopping options.
