Description

Welcome to 410 W Grace Street, a fully renovated 3-bedroom, 1.5-bath home ideally located in the Historic District of Punta Gorda, offering an inviting combination of updated living spaces, a convenient location, and exceptional outdoor potential. Just minutes from historic downtown Punta Gorda, Fishermen’s Village, waterfront parks, restaurants, shopping, and entertainment, this home puts some of the area’s most popular destinations within easy reach. Inside, the home has been thoughtfully updated with a fresh, modern feel. The bright and welcoming interior features wood-look flooring throughout, neutral finishes, recessed lighting, and abundant natural light. The spacious living and dining areas flow comfortably into the updated kitchen, creating an easy layout for everyday living and entertaining. The kitchen features crisp white cabinetry, quartz-style countertops, stainless steel appliances, subway tile backsplash, and a contrasting center island offering additional prep space and storage. The home includes three bedrooms, providing flexibility for guests, a home office, or additional living space, along with one full bathroom and a convenient half bath. Recent improvements include new impact windows and a newer metal roof, adding value and peace of mind. Outside is where this property offers even more possibilities. The exceptionally large backyard provides an impressive amount of open space and serves as a blank canvas for creating your ideal Florida outdoor retreat. Rear alley access adds additional versatility, with potential space for a pool, detached garage, workshop, additional parking, or an accessory dwelling unit (ADU), subject to applicable zoning and permitting requirements. A spacious wood deck provides an inviting spot for outdoor seating, grilling, or entertaining while overlooking the tropical surroundings. With its renovated interior, impact windows, newer metal roof, expansive yard, rear alley access, and desirable location in Punta Gorda’s Historic District, 410 W Grace Street offers a unique opportunity to enjoy updated Florida living close to downtown and the waterfront.
