Description

Value-priced! This 3-bedroom, 2-bath home offers extra living space and sits on a rare .60-acre double-lot with city water and sewer. The property features a large corner lot, fenced yard, and a unique full-brick exterior that sets it apart from typical Southwest Florida homes. An adjacent buildable lot is included—zoned to allow a new single-family home or duplex, creating exceptional potential for expansion, investment, or multi-generational living. With a total lot size of 150' x 175', the space and flexibility are unmatched at this price point. The home needs some work, but the combination of land, brick construction, and development potential makes this a standout opportunity in Immokalee.
