Description

Almost Beachfront! Don't miss this cute beach cottage just steps to the beach with incredible views from the front porch. Sit back, relax, and enjoy the Gulf & Sunset, surrounded by the sounds of the surf, with the expansive grass airfield as a wonderful buffer from other homes. A perfect spot for your dream retreat this close to the beach. Start your mornings with a walk along the shoreline, spend the afternoon swimming and shelling, and return home to enjoy it all from the shady front porch. Upstairs features panoramic Gulf & Airstrip Views, plus two bedrooms & one bath, with a cozy living space. On the ground level, another bonus sleeping room and bath are great for extra guests. For aviation enthusiasts, the setting is especially unique: the property directly borders North Captiva's private grass airstrip, creating the possibility of turning the journey to your island home into part of the adventure. North Captiva is a boat-access-only barrier island known for miles of beautiful beaches, protected preserve lands, abundant wildlife, and its relaxed golf-cart lifestyle. Whether you're looking for a personal beach escape, vacation property, or a special North Captiva home with an aviation connection, this property offers a combination of beach proximity, Gulf views, privacy, and location that's difficult to duplicate at this price point.
