Description

Set on more than an acre in Quail West, this architecturally significant residence was completely reimagined in 2021, blending its original design with warm, contemporary finishes. Originally designed by renowned architect Andrea Clark Brown, the home offers exceptional privacy, seamless indoor-outdoor living, and thoughtfully designed spaces throughout. A striking glass wine display creates an unforgettable first impression, while oversized pivot doors and walls of glass fill the home with natural light and connect the interiors to the surrounding tropical landscape. The primary suite is a true retreat, complete with a spa-inspired bath and private sauna. Designed for both everyday living and entertaining, the chef’s kitchen features Viking and Sub-Zero appliances, double islands, and wine chiller. Just beyond, the outdoor living area feels like a private resort with a covered breezeway, summer kitchen, expansive lounge areas, pool, sun deck, and western exposure overlooking spectacular sunset skies. Guests will appreciate the 2 bedroom casita, offering its own living room, laundry, and kitchen. Additional highlights include soaring ceilings, a garage with raised ceilings for vehicle lifts, whole-home audio and security systems, and a 2016 roof. A rare opportunity to own one of Quail West’s most distinctive homes, where timeless architecture meets modern luxury!
