Description

Escape the ordinary and create your own slice of Old Florida on this beautifully wooded half-acre parcel in Bokeelia. Tucked away on Hodges Drive, the property offers a wonderful sense of seclusion, surrounded by mature tropical vegetation and the natural beauty that makes Pine Island so special. Imagine creating a private island retreat where mornings begin beneath the palms, wildlife replaces traffic noise, and there is room to slow down and enjoy your surroundings. Life on Pine Island is all about the outdoors. Spend your days boating, fishing, kayaking, birdwatching, or exploring the waters of Pine Island Sound and Charlotte Harbor. The Bokeelia Fishing Pier and boat ramp provide access to some of Southwest Florida’s most popular fishing and boating destinations, including Boca Grande Pass, Cayo Costa and the surrounding outer islands. When you are back on land, enjoy fresh local seafood, island shops, art galleries, tropical fruit farms and the relaxed small-town character Pine Island is known for. Whether you envision a custom home, seasonal getaway or a piece of island property to hold for the future, this property offers the privacy of a secluded setting with the boating, fishing and coastal lifestyle of Bokeelia close at hand. Bring your plans and begin your next chapter on Pine Island.
