Description

Two houses for the price of one. This historic home checks all the boxes, and one the best locations, close to downtown, schools, hospitals, kept mostly original to its original build, with updated electrical and plumbing, roof is only 3 years old. Never any flooding from any hurricanes in 22 years of ownership. In a neighborhood known for its close-knit neighbors, kid friendly sidewalks, pet friendly sidewalks. With a multi-family designation, the super cute guest house has many possibilities let a caretaker live in the guest house while you leave for the summer and have no worries, rent the guest house? 3-bedroom main house, and a 1-bedroom guest house. Two car garage with plenty of room to store a boat or RV. Remember this is a 100-year-old home, antique homes are known for lack of closet space, kitchen is outdated, all bedrooms are upstairs. Tremendous possibilities or keep as is. Most historic homes have been altered and changed many times over the years, this home has been kept and maintained as original as possible. Hence the new owner with have an original canvas to work with. Keep as is, or? If you like historic old homes, this is the one. Home is featured in Pam Miners book 'River & Road' Fort Myers Architecture from Craftsman to Modern. Chapter One. This is a unique home for that unique buyer. Location, location.
