Description

Nestled within the breathtaking Cayo Costa State Park, this rare privately owned parcel offers the ultimate island retreat. Cayo Costa is an exclusive and secluded barrier island, accessible only by boat, featuring nine miles of untouched beaches, scenic walking and biking trails, and an abundance of native wildlife. This exceptional lot presents the perfect opportunity to build a sustainable, off-the-grid island home elevated on stilts, potentially providing stunning Gulf of Mexico and Bay views. With limited privately owned properties remaining, this is a unique chance to claim your piece of paradise. Enjoy unparalleled privacy, panoramic natural beauty, and the serenity of one of Florida’s most unspoiled coastal destinations. Don’t miss out on this extraordinary investment in Island tranquility!
