Description

Step into this Florida Riverfront Retreat where classic coastal character meets beautifully renovated living along the majestic Caloosahatchee River! This exceptional Riverfront Home captures the essence of the Florida Lifestyle with a gleaming metal roof, expansive wraparound decking, and a coveted Southern Rear Exposure that fills the pool and outdoor living spaces with warm sunshine throughout the day! From the moment you arrive, the setting is unmistakable. Wide-open water views stretch toward the horizon, creating a spectacular backdrop for morning coffee, afternoon poolside gatherings, or unforgettable sunsets over the river. The generous wraparound deck invites you to slow down, relax, and enjoy the outdoors—just as Florida living was meant to be. The beautifully completed renovations thoughtfully enhance the home's original Florida character while providing the comfort and style today's buyer expects. Every improvement works together to create a residence that feels both authentic and effortlessly sophisticated. Beyond the pool deck, the beautiful Caloosahatchee River becomes your backyard playground. Watch pelicans dive for their next meal, boats cruise along the River, and Florida's natural wildlife unfold right before your eyes! With 122' of expansive water frontage and an extraordinary sense of privacy and space, this is a property where you can truly embrace the outdoors—whether you're boating, fishing, exploring, or simply soaking up the sunshine. This is more than a beautifully renovated home. It is an invitation to own almost 1/2

Acre of such a remarkable waterfront setting, that the location will always lend itself well for a future location of a much larger SWFL Dream Home in this Exceptional Neighborhood. Call today for your private showing appointment!
