Description

Welcome to exceptional waterfront living in Royal Harbor. Designed for serious boaters, this custom residence is positioned on a desirable deep-water canal with direct access to Naples Bay and the Gulf—no bridges. The property accommodates a yacht up to approximately 80 feet, offering an outstanding opportunity for large-vessel owners seeking convenience, luxury and proximity to open water. The home offers approximately 3,653 square feet under air with four spacious en-suite bedrooms, including a first-floor primary suite, a private office/den and multiple indoor and outdoor gathering spaces. Expansive glass doors and windows fill the residence with natural light while showcasing beautiful long-water views. Architectural details include elegant courtyards, fountains and intricate ironwork. The covered lanai, resort-style pool and spa create an inviting setting for waterfront entertaining. A one-car garage with a vehicle lift provides two-car storage capacity. Located minutes from Fifth Avenue South, Third Street South, fine dining, shopping and Naples' white-sand beaches, 2535 Tarpon Road offers the ultimate combination of luxury living and serious boating access in one of Naples' most coveted waterfront communities.
