Description

Set on a rare creek-front lot within the prestigious Bellagio enclave of Fiddler's Creek, this 2-story Mediterranean villa delivers an effortless blend of refined interiors and resort-style outdoor living that few properties in Naples can match. From the moment you arrive, the grand arched entry, soaring cathedral ceilings, and newer wood flooring signal something exceptional. The open floor plan was designed for entertaining with a wet bar with wine fridge that anchors the living room, a gourmet kitchen offers gas cooking and a butler's pantry, and walls of windows that flood every room with natural light and tranquil views. The first-floor primary suite is a true retreat, with dual sinks, a jetted soaking tub, separate shower, and bidet. Three additional rooms complete the main level one a true guest bedroom, the other a flexible den ideally suited as a home office, media room, or third bedroom, and a den or formal dining room, while the second floor offers two private guest suites and an open-air balcony overlooking the water. Outside, the experience is unmatched. A massive screened lanai frames an infinity pool and spa with long creek/preserve views, and a private deeded dock that sits just beyond, ready for fishing, kayaking, or a sunset paddle. This is outdoor living without compromise. Residents of Fiddler's Creek enjoy access to one of Southwest Florida's most celebrated resort lifestyles: a world-class golf course, full-service spa, fitness center, tennis, pickleball, waterfront dining, and the Tarpon Club with boat slips and beach access. All of this, less than 10 minutes to Marco Island and 20 minutes to downtown Naples.
