Description

This waterfront stilt home and guest house are on a big, beautiful, property with lots of lush vegetation and a pond. The main living area is upstairs and gives the feeling of living in a treehouse. The home has beautiful wood planked cathedral ceilings and wood flooring The lovely, tiled bathroom has a jetted soaking tub and multiheaded shower. The upstairs living area is surrounded by connected decks and screened patios with a large, screened area off the kitchen which is perfect for enjoying the breezes and watching the birds and wildlife around the pond. A new outdoor lift, drain field and pavers on the circular driveway all add to the value of this property. The upstairs windows are all protected by manual hurricane shutters. The 1-bedroom guest home is connected by the boardwalk, has a full bathroom and kitchen as well as its own deck for outdoor relaxation. Downstairs under the main living area is a multipurpose room that is perfect for an office, studio or extra bedroom. It has an additional full bathroom and French doors that open up to a covered deck area. There is an enclosed 1 car garage with plenty of storage and space for a workshop. This fabulous home is located at the center of Pine Island and is within easy walking distance of the public pool, playground, library, and local museum. It is just minutes from shopping, and restaurants. This fabulous home combines natural beauty with functional living spaces, making it the perfect retreat.
