Description

Two homes on 5.75± acres in the historic Fort Denaud area—perfect for multigenerational living, a family compound, or anyone needing space, privacy, and flexibility. The main home offers 3,070 sq ft under air with five bedrooms, three full baths, and a half bath. Cathedral ceilings and polished concrete floors create a bright, open feel, while level 4 granite adds an upscale touch. Built with 8-inch concrete exterior walls, low-maintenance materials, and thoughtful design, this home is made to last. Highlights include: • Open kitchen with abundant storage, dovetail soft-close cabinetry, recessed lighting, and a brand-new stove • Walk-in closets in every bedroom • Master suite with private office or nursery • Entire room dedicated to extra storage • 400-amp electric service and oversized septic sized for two additional bedrooms and baths • Impact windows and doors • Energy-efficient reflective roof plywood and enhanced attic insulation At the southern end of the property sits the 1,620 sq ft guest house at 1301 Jacks Ln, offering three bedrooms, two baths, and numerous updates: new HVAC with ductwork, fresh exterior paint, updated plumbing and lighting, new gutters, and added attic insulation. Ideal for extended family, guests, or rental income. The 5.75± acre parcel is zoned for horses and livestock, giving you the freedom to enjoy true country living while still being close to town. A rare opportunity to own a versatile, move-in-ready compound with room to grow.
