Description

A rare opportunity to own an extraordinary piece of North Captiva Island’s untouched South End coastline. This oversized parcel stretches along the island’s serene mangrove shoreline on the bay, offering a setting defined by privacy, natural beauty, and peaceful seclusion... with incredible views of a breathtaking beach in both directions. Nestled among some of the most pristine and preserved areas of North Captiva with good water depth for a dock, this property is just steps from one of the nicest beaches in all of SW Florida, where shelling, fishing, and breathtaking sunsets become part of everyday life. This is your chance to own a meaningful piece of one of Florida’s most unique barrier islands. A place to preserve, enjoy, and hold as part of your island legacy. Whether your vision is immediate or simply for the future, properties in this naturally protected and peaceful setting are becoming increasingly rare. North Captiva Island remains one of Florida’s hidden coastal treasures—boat-access only, surrounded by preserve lands, and defined by a slower pace where nature still leads the way. Secure your piece of paradise on the South End of North Captiva, where you will be able to park your boat on one side, and enjoy the beach and sunsets on the other!
