Description

Discover the freedom of country living in Punta Gorda, where privacy, spacious surroundings, and versatile living areas come together on 5.37 acres. Set back from the road amid beautiful natural surroundings, this custom-built, five-bedroom, four-bath home offers a lifestyle that's difficult to find in a conventional neighborhood. Enjoy your own pond, fenced grounds, a large screened swimming pool, and a detached barn with two covered horse stalls, carport, and workshop/storage area. Inside, soaring ceilings, exposed wood beams, and dramatic two-story windows bring character and natural light to the main living area. The spacious kitchen is conveniently situated between the formal dining room and great room, while pocket sliding doors connect the living space with the expansive screened pool enclosure. One of the home's distinctive features is its abundance of flexible living space. In addition to the main-level primary suite and guest accommodations, the second floor provides additional bedrooms and generous recreation and gathering areas. Whether your interests include hobbies, gaming, media, crafts, working from home, or simply having room to spread out, this home offers numerous possibilities. Four separate air-conditioning systems provide zoned comfort, including independent upstairs temperature controls. The home also features a metal roof installed in 2012 and a downstairs air-conditioning system replaced in 2026. Outside, enjoy the privacy of your acreage, space for horses, and access to community riding trails. With paved-road access and room for both indoor and outdoor activities, this property combines country surroundings with the convenience of Punta Gorda. If you've been searching for acreage, privacy, equestrian amenities, and a home with room for your lifestyle, discover the possibilities at 5674 Blackjack Court S.
