Description

Calling all anglers, boaters, and lovers of the outdoors—this is your chance to claim your own slice of island living. Situated on ½ acre in unincorporated Bokeelia, this property offers an incredible opportunity to build or invest in one of Southwest Florida’s most naturally beautiful and peaceful communities. Bokeelia is known for its quiet, laid-back lifestyle and abundant wildlife, offering a true escape while still being within reach of Cape Coral, Fort Myers, and Punta Gorda. Despite its secluded feel, you're just a short drive to airports, beaches, shopping, and dining. Take a drive out and experience it for yourself—you may find there’s no reason to leave the island once you arrive. Located at the northern tip of Pine Island, Bokeelia is surrounded by water, with easy access to Pine Island Sound, Charlotte Harbor, and Matlacha Pass—making it a dream location for boating and world-class fishing enthusiasts. Enjoy southern exposure and a setting filled with native palms and natural beauty. The lot will require some clearing, along with installation of a well and septic system, giving you the flexibility to design and build exactly what you envision. Let's go, what are you waiting for?
