Description

Welcome to 15575 Copra Ln — a 3-bedroom, 2-bathroom pool home tucked into one of Fort Myers' most desirable neighborhoods, offering a rare chance to finish the vision exactly the way you want it. The bones are solid and the layout is warm and functional, with three generously sized bedrooms and two full bathrooms ready for your personal touch. Kitchen and bathrooms are awaiting completion, with drywall partially completed throughout the home — making this the ideal canvas for a buyer who wants to design their dream interior without compromise. Step outside and the work is already done: a private pool in full working condition invites morning laps, afternoon lounging, and sunset gatherings under the Florida sky. All utilities are connected and ready to go. Situated in the coveted 33908 corridor, you're minutes from the Gulf coastline, top-rated dining, marina access, and all the outdoor recreation that makes Southwest Florida so desirable. 15575 Copra Ln is priced to reflect the opportunity — bring your contractor, your vision, and make it yours.
