Description

Oversized .39-acre cleared and buildable lot located in a growing area of Lehigh Acres. This spacious property offers plenty of room to design and build your ideal home while still allowing space for outdoor living, a pool, or additional features. You can save time and money and start building sooner since its already cleared. Situated in a quiet residential neighborhood with convenient access to major roads and shopping, this lot combines privacy with accessibility. Whether you’re a builder, investor, or future homeowner, this is a great opportunity to secure a larger-than-average homesite in a steadily developing area of Southwest Florida. Don’t miss your chance to build on one of the bigger lots available in the area!
