Description

Experience coastal living at its finest in this beautifully updated beachfront residence located on the highly sought-after south end of Fort Myers Beach. Offering spectacular Gulf views and direct beach access, this light-filled retreat captures the relaxed elegance of Southwest Florida living with breathtaking sunsets and the soothing sounds of the surf just outside your door. This inviting condominium features an open and spacious floor plan with two bedrooms and two bathrooms, thoughtfully designed to maximize natural light and water views. The living and dining areas flow seamlessly to an expansive screened lanai, creating the perfect space to relax, entertain, or enjoy morning coffee overlooking the Gulf of Mexico. The kitchen offers ample cabinetry, generous counter space, and a functional layout ideal for both everyday living and hosting guests. The spacious primary suite offers beautiful Gulf views, a lanai, and a private en-suite bath, while the guest bedroom provides comfort and privacy for family and visitors alike. Located at the peaceful south end of Estero Island, this property offers convenient access to Lovers Key State Park, Bonita Beach, marinas, waterfront dining, and boating opportunities. Whether you are seeking a seasonal getaway, investment property, or full-time beachfront residence, this is an exceptional opportunity to enjoy the island lifestyle in one of Fort Myers Beach’s most desirable locations. Residents enjoy an outstanding array of amenities, including direct beach access, a community pool, tennis courts, bike storage, extra storage, a vehicle wash area, a community room, and internet access, all within a beautifully maintained Gulf-front setting just steps from the white sand beaches and turquoise waters of the Gulf of Mexico.
