Description

Very nice cleared lot located in one of the best back Country old fishing towns in Southwest Florida. If you love fishing or nature, Everglades City is a one of a kind! If you want to get away from traffic noise and overbuilt areas, this is the place for you. Within walking distance to many locally owned resturants, general stores, parks, boat ramps, and many places that offer eco tours by boat. Less than 23 miles there is a brand new Publix Grocery store, and just a few more miles is Marco Island and South Naples which offers more shopping, dining, and all your essential needs. This is an excellent opportunity to build high and dry and enjoy the best hidden secrets and outdoor activities Southwest Florida has to offer. If you are a star gazer, imagine the sky out here at night without all the light pollution! If you are looking for an investment property, this lot is located in the multifamily zone. Don't wait as opportunites like this do not come on the market often.
