Description

Great location and is appealing for people who want a quieter, more affordable version of coastal Florida living. This area of Cape Coral, is a great place to build your dream home among other new homes in a more peaceful, less crowded environment. It’s especially attractive because of the proximity to the new developement planned called the "Seven Islands Project" and nearby parks and boat ramp. This lot is not a far ride to open water and will have a great view of sunsets and the intersecting canals. Also close to shopping and restaurants without the crowds that are usually associated with the southern parts of Cape Coral. Not far to open water. Close to Shoping,Restrurants, Parks and More
