Description

RARE 5-ACRE ESTERO OPPORTUNITY — BACKS TO 6,100 ACRES OF PRESERVE LAND Discover an exceptional chance to own five private acres in Estero, Florida. This desirable parcel is ideally positioned along a massive 6,100-acre expanse of protected Lee County preserve land, offering unmatched privacy, natural beauty, and long-term investment security. The property is dotted with mature oak trees and enjoys west-facing exposure, perfect for breathtaking sunset views. For those seeking a larger estate, the adjacent 5-acre parcel to the north is also available—creating a rare 10-acre estate assemblage in one of Southwest Florida’s most sought-after locations. As with many untouched parcels in the region, an Environmental Resource Permit (ERP) and wetland mitigation bank credits will likely be required to build. The listing price reflects these considerations and positions this property for a quick sale.
