Description

Nestled west of Crayton Road on the quiet, charming enclave of Hawser Lane, this well-maintained single-family residence captures timeless Old Florida character in a coveted coastal setting, just a short stroll from the sugar-sand shoreline. A gracious front porch sets a welcoming tone, inviting you to step inside where the family room unfolds with light wood flooring, custom ceiling details, and a cozy gas fireplace—an ideal gathering space for both relaxed evenings and lively entertaining. The thoughtfully designed and spacious floor plan offers five generously sized bedrooms, a dedicated study, five full baths, and two half baths, providing exceptional flexibility and comfort for family, guests, or multigenerational living. Interiors feel bright and airy throughout, enhanced by ideal southeastern exposure that fills the home with natural light from morning through afternoon. Outdoors, the sun-kissed backyard offers a private retreat, perfectly suited for enjoying the coastal breeze, dining al fresco, or creating your own outdoor oasis. Whether used as a full-time residence or a refined Naples retreat, this home blends charm, function, and location—offering an effortless lifestyle moments from the beach, world-class shopping and dining, and all that makes coastal Naples so desirable.
