Description

This canal-front vacant lot offers a rare opportunity to build a custom single-family home with water access and serene surroundings. The rear of the property overlooks the canal, providing added privacy and the potential for water-oriented outdoor living. Situated in an area of established homes, this lot combines peaceful water views with convenient access to nearby shopping, dining, and major roadways. A strong option for buyers looking to create a waterfront-style residence while remaining close to everyday necessities. Buyer to conduct all due diligence regarding zoning, environmental considerations, setbacks, utilities, and intended use.
