Description

Build your dream home on this private lot located at the end of a dead-end street, offering peace, privacy, and minimal traffic—perfect for future homeowners seeking a quiet setting. The owner’s loss is truly the buyer’s gain. A survey is already in place, saving time and money. The previous owner had plans to build a new home, but due to personal reasons, the plans have changed, creating this great opportunity. Situated in a desirable area, close to a canal and conveniently near main roads, with easy access to Sunshine Blvd. The adjacent lot, owned by the same seller, is also available—ideal for those looking for extra space or an investment opportunity. This is a rare find and an opportunity too good to let go!
